Archdiocese of Anchorage-Juneau Catholic Schools Special Collection

January 25, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

May the grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with us always.

Despite many financial and COVID-19 pandemic-related challenges during the 2020-2021 school year, our Catholic schools found creative and practical solutions to educate and minister to our students within the classroom and by distance learning. Our Catholic schools continue to provide an academically rigorous education, rooted in the Gospel and rich in the traditions of our faith. And our teachers and staff provide students the foundation necessary to live an upright life of service in the world today.

In partnership with generous Catholics across the Archdiocese of Anchorage-Juneau, we financially support our Catholic schools and offer scholarship funds to families in need. Our teachers and staff are an integral part of the mission of the Church, and they assist parents in their role as primary educators and catechists of their children.

Whether or not you are a parent of an enrolled student, it is important to recognize the value of providing Catholic education for the youngest members of our Church. Please make a difference in the life of a student by supporting their ability to afford a Catholic education with a tax-deductible donation. Please return the enclosed envelope or donate online to support the schools or the endowment fund for Catholic schools scholarships.

Your gift to our annual Catholic Schools Appeal unites us together to provide financial support to our schools and students, and your generosity really does make a difference! Thank you for supporting the annual Catholic Schools Appeal.

Many blessings and peace,

Most Reverend Andrew Bellisario, C.M.
Archbishop of Anchorage-Juneau
